DIARY
Executive Officer, DD/I

Thursday, 18 December 1952

25X1A9a

1. [REDACTED], O/CD liaison, called stating that he had discussed with 25X1A9a [REDACTED] DD/P, procedures to be followed in debriefing returning DD/P personnel.
25X1A9a [REDACTED] felt that this should be handled in the IADs on the AD 25X1A9a level. I told [REDACTED] that he should use his discretion but that I was sure that DD/P would not object if it were handled by the Office Requirements Staffs rather than the AD himself, but that in any event, limited distribution should be made of the names and facts surrounding returnees. I offered my assistance should this 25X1A9a prove unacceptable [REDACTED] } AD CD

2. Attended IAC Meeting.

3. In the morning meeting Mr. Amory reminded the General of the luncheon on Monday for Admiral Espe and asked the General if he could attend and received a negative answer. At the start of the IAC meeting, General Smith turned to Espe and stated he was very sorry he would be unable to attend the luncheon, but was very pleased Espe would receive the full treatment.
